Junior Kapa Haka

Kia ora koutou

We are very fortunate to have the expertise of Whaea Tearoha (Whaea Tee) to run our Junior Kapa Haka (open to all our Year 1-3 students). This will be run on Wednesdays 8.45 - 9.30am in the school library starting this week (most other weeks we will be in Room 12).

If your child is interested in doing Junior Kapa Haka please email their classroom teacher.

PUMS (Paid Union Meetings)

A reminder that the majority of our teachers will be attending the paid union meeting on Wednesday June 27.

You can support us by collecting your child/children at lunchtime on that day.

We will have a small number of staff at school to supervise those who are unable to be collected.

SPORTS NOTICES

Cross Country

A notice was sent home with the children who qualified for the Northern Zone Cross Country (Years 4-8). This will take place this week on Thursday 7 June at Nairnville Park. The event begins at 10.00 am and will conclude at approximately 12.30pm.

We are also taking ten Year 3 children to the Junior Cross Country at Amesbury School this Friday 8 June. This event starts at 9.30am and will conclude about 11.00am.

A reminder for both events - children should bring a change of clothes, including shoes and socks and plenty to eat and drink.

Please call the school notices phone line prior to 8.30am to check if both of these events are still taking place.
